For questions about housing, please contact Gerardo Galindo at ggalindo@aaql.org with any questions.

Beware of 3rd Party Housing Companies

AAGL is not working with outside entities to make hotel room reservations for the Global Congress. AAGL23 hotels will not be calling you to help you make a reservation – any solicitation like that is a scam. Follow the hotel links that AAGL provides in your registration (or exhibit) confirmation to take advantage of the special discounted rate. Reservations should be made only by using the online link which will be provided. Solicitations by outside organizations to book hotel rooms could imperil your personal information and result in problems with your reservation. If you receive communications from anyone other than AAGL Staff or the hotel related to your reservation, please contact AAGL immediately via email at meetings@aaql.org or by phone (800) 554-2245.
